Legislature Driving for Adjournment

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP) — Driving hard for adjournment by Saturday, Congress has crowded into this week's program more major legislation than it has considered in any previous month this year.

Bills dealing with billions of dollars in appropriations and the war on poverty, food for peace, aid to education, public works, water pollution, unemployment compensation, public health, "truth-in-packaging" and urban rehabilitation are carded for final action in the headlong rush to quit.

Prospects were good for all of them to get through before members of Congress end their work in Washington for the year and hurry home for final campaigning in advance of the Nov. 8 elections. There was some talk of quitting Thursday or Friday.

Most big spending bills previously cleared the Senate and the House and are now in compromise form and subject to limited debate.

The 15th and final major appropriation bill of the session starts through the House Tuesday. It would allot $4.9 billion for miscellaneous activities, including aid to elementary, secondary and higher education and the war on poverty. It still has to go through the Senate.

Three other appropriation bills are in the compromise stage and in a position to be disposed of in a hurry. They would provide about $4 billion in funds to finance the State, Justice and Commerce Departments, the federal judiciary, the District of Columbia government and military construction.

Heading into the conference room for adjustment of differences is a bill that would authorize a $1.1-billion, two-year program of urban renewal in selected demonstration cities. It passed the House Friday.

In the same category is an investment tax credit bill passed Friday by the Senate.

Still in conference are highly controversial bills that would

A Business Education Day was proposed by Jim Purden at the Hope Rotary Club meeting last Friday, and after he had outlined details of the plan, the club agreed unanimously to support it. In the near future Hope teachers and students alike will be given first hand knowledge of the personnel needs of local businesses and industries to prepare better for future employment. More information about Business Education Day will be announced.

In the absence of the club president, Clyde Fouse, vice-president, presided over the business meeting and welcomed those attending. They included one guest, Orval Brannan of Shreveport.

boost unemployment compensation benefits and speed sales and gifts of American food to friendly foreign nations.

Ready for final action is a water pollution control compromise calling for expenditure of $3.7 billion over four years.

Another bill awaiting House action would authorize the spending of $149 million in two years for health-planning programs. As it cleared the Senate it called for spending $1.1 billion over four years. It may have to go to conference.

Also on the House calendar is an original measure to authorize $500 million of future appropriations for public works projects. The House also plans to act on a compromise version of the "truth-in-packaging" bill. And there's still a chance it may consider a bill calling for an increase in Social Security benefits starting next Jan. 1. The Senate has indicated it will not act on that subject this year.

Waiting in the wings for an expected curtain call is a Senate-passed measure that would clear the legal path for merger of the National and American Professional Football Leagues. The Senate tacked it to the investment tax credit bill, and House conferees who will have to work out a compromise seemed inclined to accept it.

Engineers Name President

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Edmund R. Ricker of Harrisburg, Pa., has been elected president of the Institute of Traffic Engineers.

Jerome Calls Delay in Bond Vote

JEROME, Ark. (AP) — The 35 registered electors in Jerome, a small southeast Arkansas farm market town, will have to wait to vote on an ambitious plan to float a $20-million industrial bond issue.

The election was scheduled for today but Mayor C.C. Gibson Jr. announced late Sunday night that it had been postponed "because we have some things we want to clear up that might cause us some trouble."

"We haven't given up on anything," Gibson said. "We will call another election when we've gotten everything cleared up."

Gibson declined to say what the trouble was or how it was caused.

He did say that Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. "didn't have anything to do with it."

Roosevelt, the Liberal party candidate for governor of New York, said Thursday that he had sent telegrams to federal officials urging that they investigate the Jerome proposal to see if it is "a legal scheme to defraud the government of taxes."

Roosevelt charged that thousands of manufacturing jobs are being lost in New York State because of "runaway shops" moving to Arkansas and other Southern states.

Gibson said he thought it "was rather funny that he would pick up a morsel like this to enhance his political stature. Roosevelt should keep his mouth shut and mind his own chickens."

The bonds would have financed construction of a knitting mill in this town of 82 persons.

The firm asked that it not be identified until after the election and Gibson has declined to identify it. He said the company is based in South Carolina.

The bonds would have been issued under an Arkansas law which provides for tax-exempt revenue bonds to finance industry.

If the company buys the bonds, it would collect tax-free interest and would escape property taxes because the plant would be owned by the city of Jerome.

Johnson Is Still Fearful of Backlash

By WALTER R. MEARS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Bidding a temporary farewell to the congressional election campaign, President Johnson has urged Americans whose forebears felt the sting of discrimination to remember that bitter heritage and become champions of Negro equality.

Johnson never used the term backlash, but his message was clear.

Twice in the days before the Asian mission he begins today Johnson had appealed to people he called newer members of the American majority to make the cause of Negro rights their own.

He sounded that summons Sunday at a Polish-American shrine on a wind-swept hilltop near Doylestown, Pa. He issued an almost identical call last Wednesday to Italian-Americans in a crowded Brooklyn hotel ballroom.

In a year of demonstrations and reports of mounting resistance to the Negro drive for equality, Johnson said millions of Americans were fighting for freedom from discrimination and told a vast crowd of Polish-Americans: "Their struggle is our own affair. Let us make it our cause as well."

Johnson said the color of a man's skin must no more bar his opportunities in America than a name difficult to pronounce, or his national origin.

In Brooklyn he said: "I ask those of you who have crossed the river to extend a helping hand."

Negro demonstrations and demands for open housing have stirred resentment, and at times violence, in some city-area neighborhoods heavy with citizens of recent immigrant descent.

Johnson plans to return to the United States Nov. 1 — with six vote-hunting days to go before the state and congressional balloting.

Republicans charged the President with misrepresenting their historical position on Social Security. The GOP National Committee asked for an investigation by the Nonpartisan Fair Campaign Practices Committee, Inc.

Their complaint, voiced Saturday night, dealt with comments Johnson had made at a news conference Thursday on Republican votes for past Social Security measures.

The Republicans offered figures they said showed more GOP support for the programs than Johnson had given them credit for.

Ramos Stage Manager for Conference

MANILA (AP) — Last year, Narciso Ramos thought he was about to retire. Now the cigar-smoking diplomat is stage manager for the seven-nation Viet Nam conference — one of the biggest diplomatic shows since the war began.

As Philippine foreign secretary, Ramos is directly responsible to President Ferdinand E. Marcos for making sure that all runs smoothly when the conference convenes Oct. 24. With six visiting heads of state, six foreign ministers, and hundreds of diplomats attending, the organizing is headache.

But he enjoys it.

"I reached the age of 65 last November and flew to Manila the same day. I had been serving abroad for 20 years and I was looking forward to retiring, taking it easy and playing some golf," he says.

"Then President Marcos, two days before his inauguration in December, told me he wanted me to be his secretary of foreign affairs. I had no idea he was going to pick me."

Ramos took to his new job with an enthusiasm that left his younger colleagues standing. In his 10 months, the Philippines has seized the diplomatic initiative in Southeast Asia.

War Is Hard on Friendly Civilians

By ROBERT D. OHMAN
QUI NHON, South Viet Nam (AP) — "This is harsh, but this is war," said the spokesman for a division of the 4,500 Korean troops in Viet Nam.

"We recognize that this is a pity for the civilians who are not Viet Cong—that they must suffer."

In six days, the soldiers of Korea's Tiger Division had brought 3,500 refugees out of the rugged, cave-dotted Phu Cat Mountains 270 miles northeast of Saigon.

It was part of a pacification program that goes farther than various plans used by American commanders.

The refugees from war—old men, women carrying babies, frightened children — marched down winding trails toward the valley floor.

The refugees were taken to collection points. There they received food and blankets.

The refugees are moved from the collection points by foot, truck, helicopter or boat to the rear to await shipment to resettlement camps established by the Vietnamese government.

The refugees from the mountain area of 60 square miles exceed the facilities available. It probably will be weeks before many of them will be placed in camps to await the conclusion of Phu Cat Mountain fighting between the Koreans and the Viet Cong.

Then, those who have been classified as loyal to the government will be permitted to return to their homes. The forced resettlement of all civilians in such a large area is the Tiger Division's solution to the problem of separating civilian noncombatants from guerrillas.

The division spokesman said: "If we do not do it this way, the war will not end, ever."

"We want all of the people to be evacuated from the area under VC control. If the population remains, the Viet Cong will return and set up their organization again."

The division used similar tactics when it was assigned to pacifying about 900 square miles of Binh Dinh Province around Qui Nhon when it arrived in Viet Nam a year ago.

"We are proud to say our area is now the most secure in Viet Nam," the spokesman said.

The Phu Cat Mountains have been held by the Viet Cong for more than 20 years, and are believed to harbor a main force.

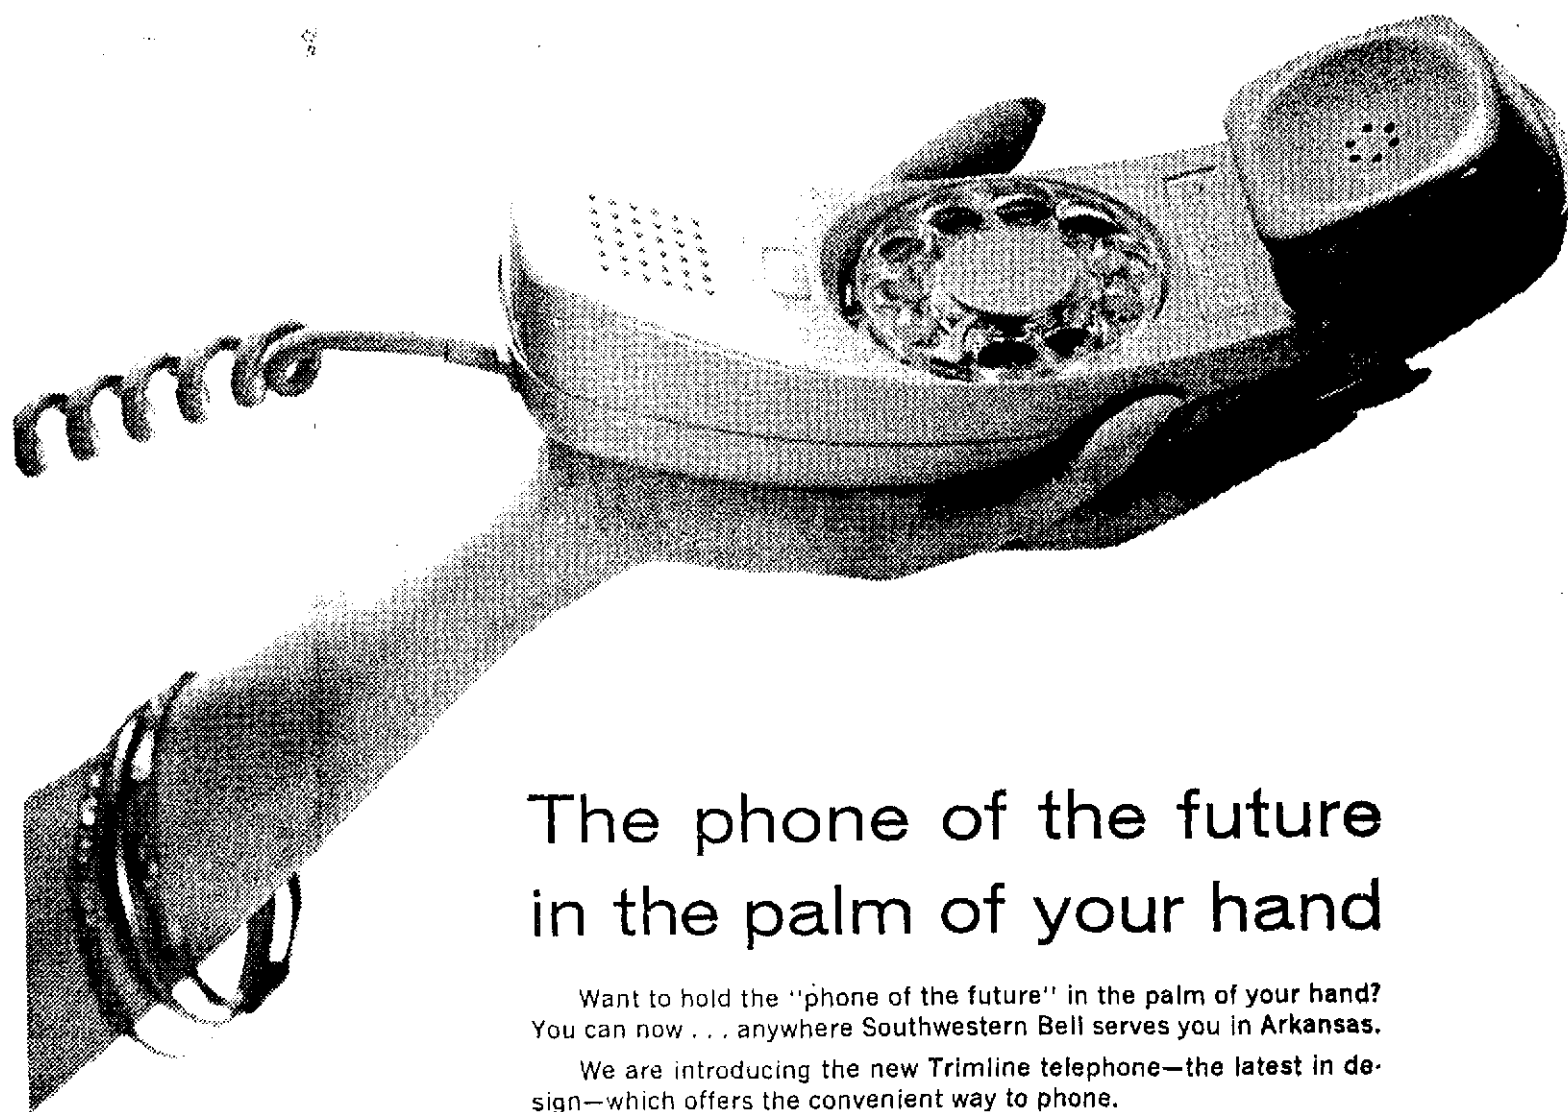

More than half the population of Guatemala are Indians.

ANNOUNCING THE NEW

Trimline®
PHONE

The phone of the future
in the palm of your hand

Want to hold the "phone of the future" in the palm of your hand? You can now . . . anywhere Southwestern Bell serves you in Arkansas.

We are introducing the new Trimline telephone—the latest in design—which offers the convenient way to phone.

It lets you stay relaxed . . . everything you need is in your hand. No reaching for the base either, as the "recall" button near the dial "hangs up" the phone and you can make several calls without stretching.

The Trimline telephone, an object of beauty with the dial concealed when not in use, is available in either wall or table models . . . and in your choice of colors, too.

Put the phone of the future in your hands today. Call your Southwestern Bell Telephone Business Office, or ask your telephone man, about the one-time installation and service connection charges and regular monthly rates.

You can relax completely with a Trimline phone. The dial in the handset comes to you for easy use.

You can install the Trimline wall set anywhere. The dial in the handset is always convenient to use.

New York's Governor in Comeback

By RELMAN MORIN

AP Special Correspondent NEW YORK (AP) — The crowds are sizeable and on the whole friendly. Their questions to him are often searching but seldom hostile. The polls are pointing upward, his aides say.

All of which indicates that Nelson A. Rockefeller, 58, is making a comeback in his bid for a third term as governor of New York — after having frankly acknowledged "my biggest blunder" and seeing his political stock plunge to an all time low. Rockefeller says he is still the underdog in the race against his Democratic rival, Frank D. O'Connor. He adds, "It's a tough fight, but we're moving now."

Along his campaign trail — A woman in lower Manhattan reaches into his car, grips his hand and says, "You're the greatest, Rocky."

A labor union official informs Rockefeller that the union is endorsing him and says, "Your record of accomplishment merits — no, demands — that we take this action."

At this stage, 27 unions with a membership of about 860,000 have endorsed the governor, probably a record for a GOP candidate in a statewide New York election. The incidents multiply as Rockefeller, driving hard — and obviously relishing the campaign — batters at the roadblocks on the way to another four-year term in Albany, the state capital.

The principal ones are: 1. An attractive Democratic candidate, Frank Daniel O'Connor, 56, president of the New York City Council, O'Connor is trim, has a lean profile, greenish-blue eyes and wavy hair flecked with gray. In manner, he is friendly and relaxed and the Irish wit is effortless. But in making a speech he turns incisive and forceful as a trial lawyer, which he was; district attorney of Queens County for 11 years.

2. A Democratic margin of 876,000 over the Republicans in registration, New York City, heavily Democratic, accounts for about 40 per cent of the statewide vote. "I'm concerned about getting out the vote," Rockefeller says.

3. An erosion of Rockefeller's popularity among conservative Republicans in upstate New York — the big area beyond the city and its suburbs — brought about by new taxes after the 1962 election and his "medical" program. "I've been a little more progressive than some of my colleagues liked," the governor says. "But the county organizations have come around pretty well," O'Connor says he is finding "terrific anti-Rockefeller sentiment" upstate and counts this as one of his best assets.

4. A certain amount of time-for-a-change sentiment. Touching this chord, O'Connor recently told an audience in Rochester, "He has had eight years to mismanage our state's finances. Let's not give him another four."

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — When ABC's "Tammy Grimes Show" was in obvious distress from its first program, ABC quickly removed it from its Thursday night schedule — and replaced it with a show that is infinitely worse.

It is "The Dating Game," an extension of a silly daytime show. It was obviously an emergency replacement — so much so, in fact, that the host constantly forgets and wishes the contestants "good morning."

The "game" is to produce a pretty single girl who, after posing a series of fantastic questions to three bachelors she cannot see, picks the fellow with whom she would like a date.

The opening show last week proved to be such a clutter of inanities that this reviewer postponed reviewing it until after a second show. But Thursday night things seemed even worse.

The first contestant was a blonde model who was asked to pick, sight unseen, one of the bachelors — singer Bobby Rydell who happens to be on another ABC series, actor Paul Petersen who used to be on an ABC series and a non-professional.

Both actors got in their plugs about current activities. Then they floundered through answers to questions like, "What would you do to make a sad goldfish happy?" and "If you were frozen solid for 100 years, what would be the first thing you wanted when you thawed out?"

Anyway, she picked Petersen, and off they ran to collect their date — a day in San Francisco and the day's receipts from a local candy store.

The half hour seems a shabby misuse of valuable evening air time.

SIREN ONLY WANTS TARGET PRACTICE

Dear Helen: After 20 years of near-perfect married life — deep love, four children, real understanding — I am heartsick and desperate.

The thing I knew would never happen to us, is happening. Ted, my husband has become infatuated with a very pretty 16-year-old girl. When you have been as close as we have, you know every mood and emotional change your mate goes through, so I know this is not my imagination.

Helen, I am 24 years older than she is, and though I have kept myself trim and as attractive as possible, still there is a world of youth between us and I feel like I would like to put my ugly old head in a bag and just die!

Ted loves his children and seems to be content here at home, so I doubt that he would do anything drastic. But she DOES have a noticeable yen for him. She ignores me completely.

I know I must not accuse him. Or look miserable, or let the children know anything is wrong, but I have this constant feeling of doom. I have read that men who reach 40-45 will become involved with young girls and I am scared to death of losing him.

Do other wives face this? — Mrs. Nobody.

Dear Mrs.N: Smart wives face a young menace with courage and a sense of humor. A middle-ager would be made of stone if his head weren't turned by a pretty teen with an obvious yen for him. He's flattered more than infatuated, and he laps up the attention because she makes a thoroughly married father-of-four feel young and devilish.

My I. G. A. P. (I'm Guessing Again Perception) tells me the gal has picked Ted for target practice because he is safe, and she needs to prove herself as a huntress. She may think it's a crush, but basically she is just sharpening up her sex appeal.

He'll find it out in time, but you can hurry matters along with gentle spoofing. Smile at her junior slrenship, show her immaturity, pity her a little — hang in there and fight! You've got everything on your side, including age, so get your head out of that bag and prove to your man how lucky he is to have a REAL woman. — H.

Yerger Takes Loss From Texarkana

By JAMES HAMILTON
In Hammons Stadium, here Friday night, October 15, the Yerger Tigers were defeated by the Washington High Lions of Texarkana by a score of 18-0, making their record 1-5-1.

The Lions got off to a good start as they received the opening kick off and drove 68 yds. for a TD with Arnold Cheatham grinding out the last 4 yds. The P. A. T. was no good and they led by a score of 6-0.

Throughout the remainder of the half both teams were scoreless and the Lions led going into the half by a score of 6-0.

The Lions, not willing to give up so easily, scored another TD as Harry Hulbert intercepted a pass and took it 28 yds. for a touchdown. The P. A. T. was no good and the Lions still led 12-0.

In the fourth quarter with only 1:53 left in the game, the Lions scored again on a 2yd. run by Arnold Cheatham. The P. A. T. was no good making the final score 18-0.

The Leading Rusher for the Tigers was Robert Prater with 3 carries for 58 yds.

Leading the rushing for the Lions was Arnold Cheatham with 13 carries for 89 yds.

Dallas and Cards Play to a Tie

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Vince Lombardi couldn't keep Chicago's Gale Sayers on the sidelines, so Lombardi's Green Bay Packers did the next best thing.

They kept Sayers in the middle of the field, stymied the Bears' dash and rolled to a 17-0 victory Sunday for sole possession of first place in the National Football League's Western Division.

Green Bay's bruising defense, led by veteran Willie Davis, held Sayers, the NFL's scoring champion and rookie of the year last season, to 29 rushing yards while handing the Bears their first shutout loss in 27 games.

"Every time he makes a move, I lose a year of my life," Lombardi said after the Packers' defensive charge had contained Sayers. "Would I rather have him run inside or outside? I'd rather have him sit on the bench."

Sayers, hounded by Davis and his defensive cohorts, could not break away in 15 carries — his biggest pick-up was nine yards. The Packers, meanwhile, scored on a 1-yard run by Paul Hornung, a 30-yard field goal by Don Chandler and a 20-yard interception return by Willie Wood.

Green Bay's fifth victory in six starts, coupled with Los Angeles' 35-7 loss to previously winless Minnesota, dropped the Rams, 4-2, one game behind the Packers in the Western race.

St. Louis and Dallas, both unbeaten and 1-2 in the East, struggled to a 10-10 tie while Baltimore walloped Detroit 45-14, San Francisco drubbed Atlanta 44-7, Philadelphia ## whipped Pittsburgh 31-14 and New York upended Washington 13-10.

The Packers drove 66 yards early in the third quarter and broke a scoreless deadlock on Hornung's TD plunge. Ray Nitschke picked off a Rudy Bukich pass and rambled 23 yards, setting up the field goal, and Wood wrapped it up with his scoring jaunt.

Fran Tarkenton passed for three touchdowns and scored another, leading Minnesota to its first victory in five games, while the Vikings smothered Ram quarterback Roman Gabriel repeatedly and intercepted him three times. Tarkenton completed 20 of 30 passes for 327 yards.

Baylor Leads SWC, Has Tough Row

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
Baylor's Bears, given the favorite's tag after their defeat of Arkansas, wonder about that as they prepare for the shock of Texas A&M's visit next Saturday.

The Aggies have grown to fearsome heights in the Southwest Conference race. They whipped Texas Christian 35-7 and looked stronger than Arkansas or most anybody doing it. They are leading the race with a 2-0 record and they meet one of two other unbeaten teams in the big homecoming battle on the Baylor greensward at Waco.

Southern Methodist, still pinching itself to see if what it did Saturday night in beating Rice 28-24 is a dream, is the other team undefeated in conference play.

The Methodists get thrice-defeated Texas Tech at Lubbock Saturday and on the face of things should have it much easier than the Aggies or Bears.

But Texas Tech has an offense that must be worried about. It racked up 512 yards and scored five touchdowns against a good Florida State team and still got beat 42-33. But that kind of playing can't go on forever winding up on the losing side of the ledger. If Rice had scored five touchdowns it would have beaten SMU.

Texas, tripped by Arkansas 12-7, faces a fight for its life at Houston Saturday night when it battles Rice. The Longhorns must win or fall out of the race. Rice, which has played only one game but lost it, also faces elimination.

With six teams in conference action, the other two—Arkansas and Texas Christian—return to intersectional competition, both needing to win to get the league back even for the season.

Texas Christian, which has a 1-1 record, meets Auburn, which shows 2-3, at Auburn. Arkansas, 4-1, clashes with Wichita State, which hasn't yet won a game, at Little Rock.

John Scovell, Texas Tech quarterback, made three touchdowns against Florida State and took over the conference scoring lead with 26 points. Jerry Levas, Southern Methodist's ace pass receiver, is second with 24.

Razorbacks Beat Texas, Still in Race

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas, clinging tenaciously to a chance for a third straight Southwest Conference football title, licks its wounds with a day of rest today following a vicious defensive battle with Texas at Austin Saturday.

Frank Broyles greeted his battered Porkers with the news that they would not practice today shortly after the Razorbacks stung Texas 12-7 in a regionally televised game.

It was the Porkers' third straight triumph over the Steers and marked the only time a Darrell Royal-coached Texas team dropped three in a row to the same team.

"It was the most bruising game I've ever witnessed," said Broyles.

This team was more dedicated to winning a football game than any in his previous eight seasons at Arkansas, Broyles said.

"They never once looked back to the Baylor game," he added. The Bears upset Arkansas 7-0 the week before, ending the Porkers' regular season winning string at 24 games.

Arkansas took a 6-0 lead in the first half on field goals of 22 and 37 yards by sophomore Bob White, but Texas forged ahead in the final minute of the half when Chris Gilbert knifed over from the one and David Conway added the extra point.

However, Arkansas wasn't to be denied. In the third period Martine Bercher fielded a punt, got some strong blocks and danced down the sideline for 49 yards to the Steer 22.

On the next play Jon Brittenum rifled a pass into the arms of Tommy Burnett at the 10. Burnett wheeled around, eluded a couple of defenders and stepped into the end zone.

That ended the scoring but by no means ended the action. Things got even more vicious after that.

Five times Texas penetrated Arkansas territory, only to be shoved back by the Razorbacks' brilliant defense. Two pass thefts by Gary Adams, one lying on his back in the end zone, thwarted strong longhorn scoring bids.

Three Arkansas fumbles helped the Texans in the final quarter, but Broyles said his defense on each occasion was "one of the grandest things I've ever seen happen."

Five Porkers were injured in the game, linebacker Lee Johnson the most serious. Broyles said Sunday that he would not know until today just when Johnson would be ready to play.

Broyles said the others—Harry Jones, Don McIlvogue, Bruce Maxwell and Richard Trail—should be ready to play.

"Maybe we can get a mental break now and relax a little," said Broyles, "but we've still got to beat Wichita some way. We've still got to improve each week."

Wichita, winless in four games, takes on the Porkers in Little Rock Saturday night and Arkansas will be an overwhelming favorite.

Following Wichita, Arkansas returns to the SWC race, facing the three surprise teams in succession — Texas A&M, Rice and Southern Methodist.

Nicklaus Is Winner in Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus is $20,000 richer as the winner of the $100,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament.

Blasting his way to a five-under-par 66 Saturday, Nicklaus won by three strokes with a 72-hole total of 282.

Arnold Palmer and Miller Barber tied for second place at 285, to take home $9,500 each.

Barber held the lead going into the final round Saturday and was even with Nicklaus at the 12th hole. He fell back, however, after the 14th.

Blanda Leads Oilers Over Jets 24-0

George Blanda happened to the previously undefeated New York Jets, but look what happened to the hopeful Kansas City Chiefs — Hewitt Dixon.

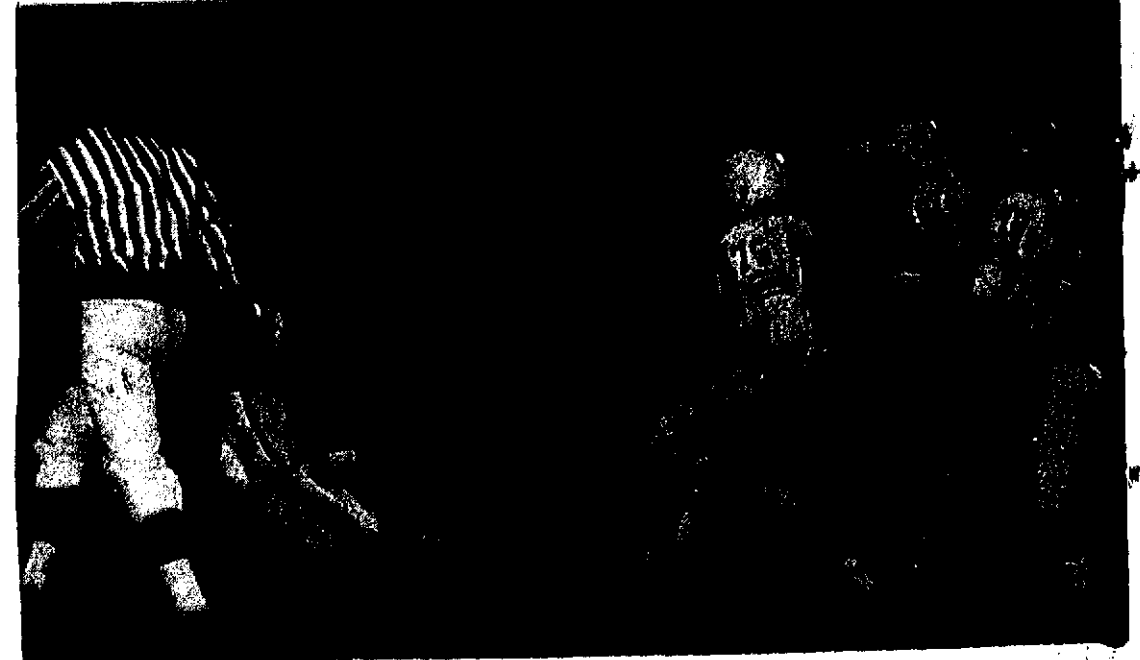

Blanda threw two touchdown passes and kicked a field goal Sunday as Houston coasted to a 24-0 victory over New York, the last undefeated team in the American Football League. The loss prevented the Jets from taking a commanding 2½-game lead in the Eastern Division.

Then there were the Chiefs, who had thoughts of beating Oakland and grabbing sole possession of first place in the Western Division. But they ran into Dixon—or to be more exact, Dixon ran through them — and wound up on the wrong end of a 34-13 score.

The previously unheralded Dixon scored three touchdowns in the Raiders' 28-point second quarter, combining with Tom Flores on pass plays of 76 and 10 yards and sweeping one yard for the third score.

Action in Yerger Contest

— Hope Star Photos

There was a lot of action in Hammons Stadium Saturday night but the Yerger High Tigers dropped an 18-0 decision to Texarkana.

San Diego 17-17 and Miami won its first game by downing Denver 24-7.

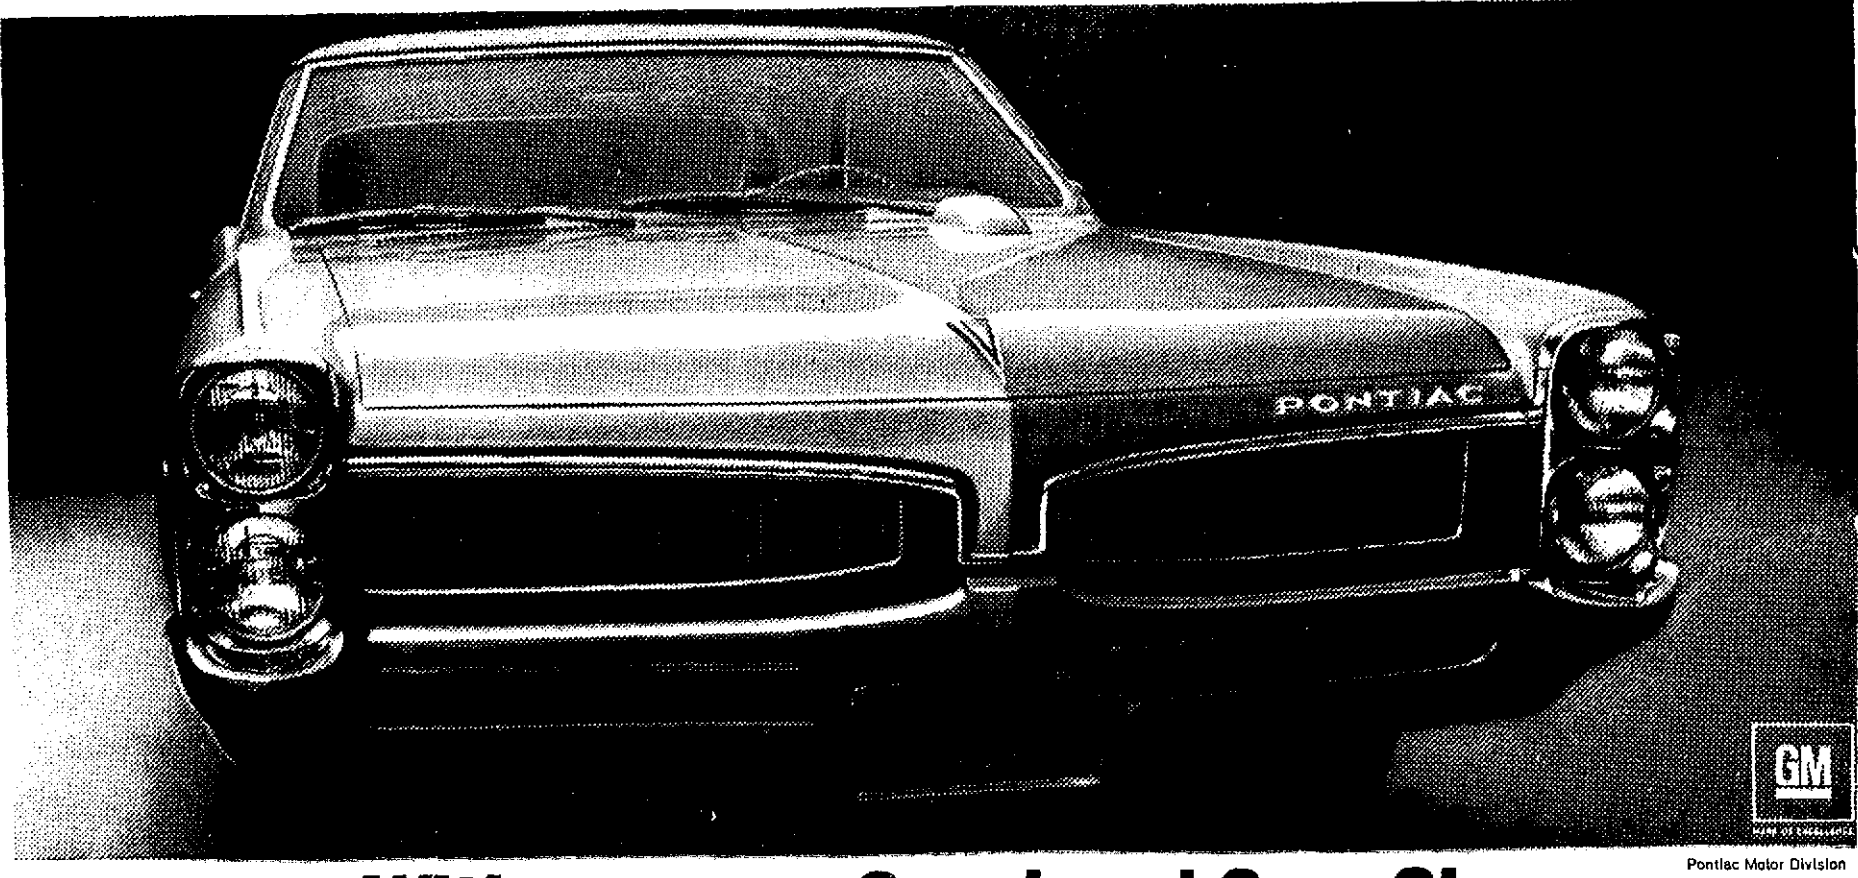

The Raiders' victory dropped the Chiefs one-half game behind San Diego in the West while Houston's victory cut New York's lead in the east to 1½ games.

The Oilers' performance was far different from the one they put on in New York four weeks before when they lost 52-13. Blanda kicked an eight-yard field goal, then hit Sid Blanks with a 2-yard touchdown pass and Charley Hennigan with a four-yard scoring toss. The Oilers intercepted four Joe Namath passes.

San Diego grabbed a 17-3 halftime lead over Buffalo, but Da-yle Lamonea hit Bobby Br-rett with a three-yard touch-down pass in the third quarter and sneaked one yard for the ing score in the fourth. The B- lost a chance to win it wh- Booth Lusteg's 23-yard fle- goal try failed with six second left in the game.

Miami finally won after lost five times, taking the lead in the first quarter on George Wilson's 67-yard touchdown aerial to B-ly Joe and never relinquish- it. Joe Auer ran for two tou- downs in the second half for Dolphins.

You don't believe a 6 can act anything like an 8?

With our new Overhead Cam Six you'd better believe it.

A few short years ago automotive engineers were struggling to coax 165 hp out of a four barrel V-8 using premium gas. Remember? Our single barrel OHC 6 gets 165 hp on regular. And 215 from the premium gas four barrel option.

Most American sixes (and some underprivileged V-8s) don't even come close. Expensive European sports machines do. But they're overhead cams, too. In fact, they inspired us. But we like to think ours is better.

Our OHC 6 is standard on all Tempests and Le Mans. To say nothing of new styling, new interiors, new colors, new options (like that hood-mounted tach) and new standard safety features (like passenger-guard door locks, General Motors' new energy absorbing steering column and a four-way hazard warning flasher).

We've said enough. If a test drive won't convince you, nothing will. 67 Pontiac OHC Sprint/Ride the Wide-Track Winning Streak

Top Teams Keep Win Records

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Notre Dame and Michigan State have at least three things in common — a top ranked football team, a perfect record and a problem.

On Nov. 19, the Irish and Spartans meet in a game that could quite possibly decide the national championship. But before that, there is the smaller matter of the four other games each must play. Winning them — while fighting the temptation to look ahead — has to be a chief concern of both.

Interestingly, both only have one other game on their respective schedules that should give them any trouble and both come next week. Notre Dame plays unbeaten Oklahoma and Michigan State takes on potent Purdue.

After that, it's Navy, Pitt and Duke for the Irish, and Northwestern, Iowa and Indiana for the Spartans before the big clash in East Lansing, Mich. A loss by either team in any of those games would be prime upset-of-the-decade material.

Michigan State's position atop The Associated Press' football poll probably was jeopardized by its narrow 11-8 victory over Ohio State Saturday. Key passes by quarterback Jimmy Raye in the final period took up the slack for a faltering running attack and gave State a rain-soaked victory.

On the other hand, the Irish breezed to a 32-0 triumph over North Carolina. The Notre Dame running attack came into its own and North Carolina had little chance when quarterback Danny Talbott twisted his ankle and was followed to the bench by his replacement, Jeff Beaver.

Alabama, the third-ranked team, had all it could do to score 11 points in the final period, then hang on and repulse a last desperate Tennessee drive for an 11-10 victory Alabama quarterback Kenny Stabler went a yard for the touchdown, then threw for the two-point conversion.

UCLA, No. 4, crushed Penn State 49-11, behind the passing of Gary Beban and the running of Mel Farr. Southern California, No. 5, and UCLA's top threat in the Pacific Eight, overcame Stanford 21-7 on two touchdown passes by Troy Win-slow.

Nebraska, No. 6, had a surprisingly tough time with Kansas State, which has lost 16 games in a row. Georgia Tech, No. 7, spotted Auburn a 3-0 half-time lead, but came back for a field goal and two touchdowns, one on a 59-yard punt return, and took a 17-3 decision.

Steve Spurrier guided eighth-ranked Florida to a fourth-period touchdown and a 17-10 victory over North Carolina State. Purdue, No. 9, overcame Michigan 22-11 when guard Frank Kemp blocked a punt in the fourth quarter, caught the ball in the air and ran in for a touchdown. Baylor, No. 10, didn't play.

1892

WARD & SON DRUG CO., Established by J. J. Ward, father of the late Finley Ward, and Key. Steve Bader & Douglas Drake are the present owners.

1893

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Captain J. T. West was a spunky man. Back in 1876 he retired from a successful Mississippi River Boating business and moved to Hope, (a cabin boy under him was a youngster named Samuel L. Clemens whom West nicknamed Mark Twain.)

In 1893 The Bank of Hope came into existence with spunky Captain West as its first president. Later known as the First National Bank of Hope, it still maintains the old riverman's aggressiveness and business intuition.

Since opening the doors of its new building at Second and Walnut in 1959, First National has almost doubled its customer deposits, and grown into a financial institution offering a full range of services to all Southwest Arkansas. Maybe it's because the Spirit of spunky Captain West is still there.

A man who wears both suspenders and a belt is rather safe. It takes a real pessimist to carry a couple of safety pins besides.

In rubber bridge you can afford this form of pessimism. When you are in a normal game contract you want to insure it first and try for extra tricks later.

In duplicate bridge you should exercise reasonable care but you cannot afford to give up a potential extra trick just to guard against an improbable bad break. Today's hand illustrates one of these extreme safety plays. South follows suit while East takes the first two heart tricks and continues. He is certain that West can over-ruff if he ruffs low but the ruff with a low card will ensure his contract against a 5-0 break in trumps. Thus, the low card ruff is a safety play. It is probably a good safety play in rubber bridge, but in duplicate it represents needless luxury. You get a top score any time trumps break 5-0 but you wind up with a bad score when trumps break 3-2.

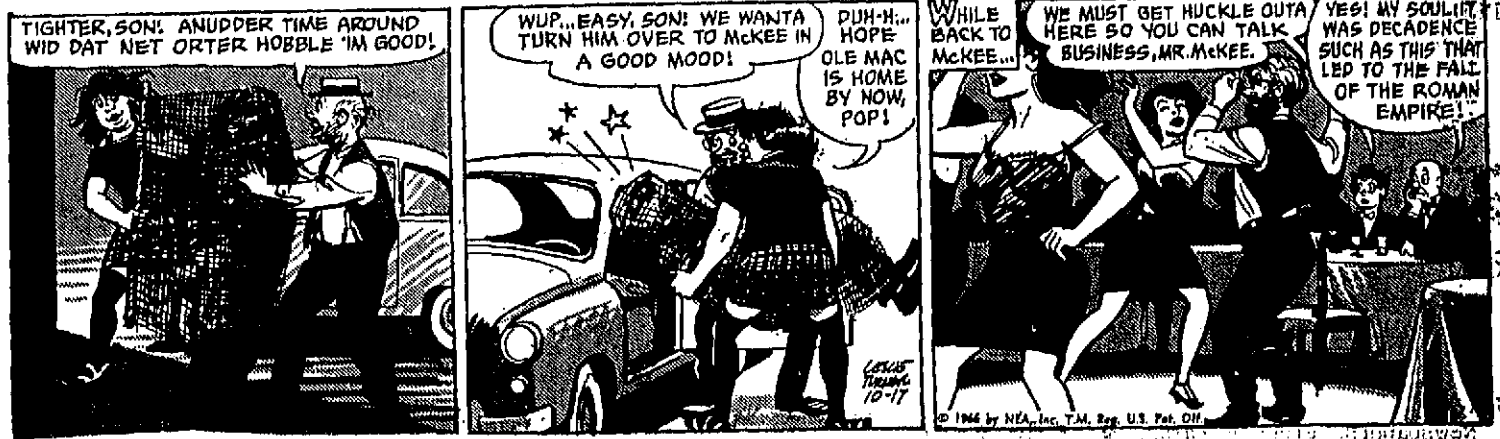

The 3-2 trump break is the normal one. The 5-0 break is so abnormal that many rubber bridge players would disdain the safety play and ruff high in an effort to collect the 30 points for an over-trick.

Kiss of Death Paradox of the Arkansas Gazette

On Sunday the Arkansas Gazette, Democratic Party house organ, endorsed Republican Winthrop Rockefeller for governor.

Its long and involved editorial was more an analysis of the newspaper than of Mr. Rockefeller, and we imagine it made the squire of Petit Jean Mountain about as uncomfortable as did editors such as this one who haven't yet decided.

In a tight race the Gazette's endorsement is scarcely welcomed, being widely known as "The Kiss of Death."

This may not be fatal to a man of the stature of Mr. Rockefeller; but if I were in his shoes I would counter instantly with a charge that a yellow-dog Democratic journal was taking a sick way to destroy me.

The Arkansas Gazette is famous for failing to support good men in an election and then second-guessing the result.

It sat on its hands when the late Francis Cherry, Arkansas' last independent governor, was seeking re-election — and then, a week after Orval Faubus had narrowly defeated him, had the audacity to run an editorial saying Cherry was an outstanding governor and deserved to be re-elected!

It is this sort of thing that makes the Arkansas Gazette suspect. The Gazette created Faubus — just as it now is trying to destroy Rockefeller.

Testimony in South Africa Killing

By DAVID J. PAINE
CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — A defense psychiatrist testified today that Dimitrios Tsafendas told him he killed crime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd because Tsafendas had a few worms inside him that had changed his life and influenced his actions.

Dr. Harold Cooper was testifying in support of a defense contention that Tsafendas, 48, was mentally deranged when he stabbed the prime minister Sept. 6. The defense entered the sanity plea at the start today of Tsafendas' trial on a charge of murder.

The defense contention delayed all testimony concerning the murder charge as well as Tsafendas' plea of guilty or innocent to the charge. South African law provides that in such cases the court must first rule on the defendant's sanity. If he found mentally deranged he will be committed to a mental institution.

and Grab ry in North New Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — A band of 350 Spanish-Americans has laid claim to 500,000 acres of federal land in northern New Mexico.

The members of the Federal Alliance of Land Grants established a community, camping in the Carson National Forest near Albuquerque. The alliance refused since 1848 to recognize their ownership of the land. Don Seaman, supervisor of the National Forest, said he would meet in Albuquerque today with William D. Hurst, southwest regional forester, and U.S. Forest Service's general counsel to determine what should be done.

Alliance President Reyes Lo Tijerina said the community had a mayor and had passed an ordinance forbidding Forest Service personnel to trespass. Thirty armed men remained the scene to protect the alliance's claim, Tijerina said. Others left for their homes after a weekend stay.

He said the alliance was claiming the old Spanish land in town of San Joaquin del de Chama, established Aug. 8, 1806 by Don Carlos IV, king of Spain. Seaman said the Forest Service's view was that the alliance members are "just visitors to a national forest which always has been open to the public."

Observers in Politics Real Busy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
For political observers it was a busy weekend.

The Republican candidate for attorney general once more lashed out at a resort-retirement area operated by two Democratic officials.

A Democrat-turned-Republican turned Democrat again, GOP gubernatorial nominee Winthrop Rockefeller discussed more plans for Arkansas' educational system, and The Arkansas Gazette threw its support to Rockefeller.

Jerry Thomason, the GOP nominee for the attorney general post, criticized what he called "political influence" to get the state's first tourist information center built at Bella Vista Village in Benton County.

The Village is operated by John Cooper, Democratic Party treasurer, and Joe Basore, Democratic campaign chairman and son-in-law of Cooper.

"It must have taken a lot of political string-pulling by Mr. Cooper and Mr. Basore to get this new center built in the midst of their new retirement housing development," Thomason said, "so they could promote their property among visiting tourists."

Thomason has also called the building of two roads, one through Bella Vista and another through Cherokee Village, the result of political influence.

Both Bella Vista and Cherokee Village in Sharp County are operated by Cooper and Basore. They have denied any political implications.

A Mount Holly businessman who was fourth in the race for governor in 1962 as a Democrat and supported Republican Winthrop Rockefeller against Gov. Orval Faubus in 1964, announced Saturday that he is once again a Democrat.

Vernon Whitten, who also lost two races for U.S. representative in the 4th District, said he had become disillusioned with Rockefeller and was going to support the Democratic nominee, Jim Johnson.

He accused Rockefeller of "building a two-party system (as) a smokescreen to cover the fact that your real purpose was to take over the state of Arkansas."

Rockefeller, meanwhile, was meeting with the state's top educational leaders—a meeting to which Johnson was also invited attend because of previous commitments.

The state's top need is an upgrading of primary and secondary educational systems, Rockefeller told a meeting of 51 superintendents and teachers at the Arkansas Education Association building.

"Without a strong foundation of primary and secondary education, we're in trouble," Rockefeller said.

Rockefeller said he would work to bring the state's teacher salaries to the national average and said it would be possible to give teachers a salary increase and also provide free textbooks for the upper four grades without a tax increase.

In its Sunday edition, the Gazette endorsed Rockefeller because the election is not "democratic versus Republican; it is simply Johnson versus Rockefeller."

The Gazette, long a Democratic-oriented newspaper, said it was not supporting the Republican, "we are supporting the man."

Rockefeller's election would ultimately serve the best interests of the Democratic Party, the Gazette said.

121 Enemy Boats Sunk by Allies

SAIGON, South Viet Nam

(AP) — South Vietnamese militiamen, U.S. gunship helicopters and river patrol boats swept down on a flotilla of 150 Viet Cong sampans in the Mekong Delta Sunday, sank 121 of the enemy boats and killed 147 Viet Cong soldiers, South Vietnamese military headquarters reported today.

The American helicopters accounted for 51 of the enemy dead, while the Vietnamese force also took 17 prisoners in the search and destroy operation in Kien Tuong Province.

Viet Cong terror returned today to the streets of Saigon. A claymore mine explosion near a U.S. military billet took a toll of 11 killed or wounded.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's government also was rocked by new dissension within the Cabinet which endangered the facade of unity Ky had patched together for the Manila summit conference.

Ky, on a trip to the central highlands, said he would invite President Johnson to visit South Viet Nam after the Manila conference next week. There has been speculation that the President would make a one-day stop in South Viet Nam Oct. 27.

Except for the sampan battle, scattered ground fighting continued on a small scale. Another force of militiamen reported 21 enemy killed and nine captured in an engagement in Kien Phong Province southwest of Saigon on the Cambodian border.

The U.S. air offensive against North Viet Nam was severely hampered for the second straight day by rainstorms and generally bad weather. American pilots flew only 97 bombing missions Sunday well below their daily average of about 150 and the record 175 missions flown last week.

2 Hurt in Wreck Near Blevins

About 5:30 p.m. yesterday on Highway 29, near Blevins, a car went out of control and crashed into a ditch and two members of a Lockesburg family were injured, but no believed critically.

An Oakcrest ambulance took Mrs. Claud Head and a daughter, Judy Head to a Prescott hospital for treatment of what was thought to be only cuts and bruises. A Herndon-Cornelius also went to the scene. Others in the car apparently escaped injury.

Air Group to Meet Oct. 26

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gen. John P. McConnell and Jack D. Brewer will be the keynote speakers at the International Congress on Air Technology here Oct. 26-29, the Valley Education and Research Foundation announced Saturday.

McConnell, a native of Booneville, is chief of staff of the Air Force. Brewer is the program manager of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's aircraft research.

HOUSTON GUNTER

The Hempstead Manufacturing Company located on West Avenue B started operation in 1963 with approximately 30 employees and under the management of Houston Gunter. Present employment is 50 to 55 at the mill and on the yard with some 40 to 50 working in the woods supplying the logs for the operation of the mill. Total annual payroll for all of the operation will amount to approximately $400,000. Timber is obtained from land owners in the area as well as from the lands of Gunter Land and Timber Company. The finished product is sold and shipped into 16 states. This is Forest Products Week in Hope and Hempstead and the Nation.

4 Negroes Die in Wreck Near Rosston

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four persons were killed in a two-car head-on collision near Camden early Sunday.

The victims, all young persons from near the Rosston community in Nevada County, left Arkansas with six weekend traffic fatalities, an Associated Press count showed today.

The other two traffic deaths came as a result of hit and run incidents.

State Police said the two-car crash killing four occurred about 20 miles south of Camden on Arkansas 4. The cars were driven by John B. Tidwell, 21, and Nathaniel Godbolt, 17, officers said.

They were killed along with Jackie Sue Williams, 18, and Troy Lee Guley, 16.

Earl Mitchell Spencer, 60, of Hot Springs died in a Hot Springs hospital Sunday of injuries he received Friday night when he was struck by a car during a rainstorm. Police said Spencer was en route to his job at an all-night service station when the incident occurred.

The other victim was James Robinson, about 40, a Negro who lived about one-half mile south of Kingsland. His mangled body was found beside a highway about 15 miles from where a bizarre hit and run accident took place.

Mrs. Homer Morrison, sheriff of Cleveland County, said Robinson was struck near his home on Arkansas 97 and the body apparently jammed under the car. The body was found off a county road near Fordyce by Sheriff Clary Atkinson of Dallas County.

AREA Against Consolidation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Around 300 members of the Arkansas Rural Education Association gathered here Saturday to hear a series of short talks opposing passage of the school consolidation act.

The act, which is on the Nov. 8 general election ballot, would require consolidation of school districts with few than 400 pupils.

The Arkansas Education Association is in favor of the act, but the AREA is not.

Rep. Ode Maddox of Montgomery County, superintendent at Oden, was one of those who spoke.

"Don't let anybody tell you that if you abolish a school, the community will continue, because it will not," Maddox said. "You might as well roll up the streets."

Court Refuses to Take Up Vote System

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to permit Delaware to file a suit challenging constitutionality of the safe unit vote system of choosing presidential electors.

The court in a brief order merely said "the motion for leave to file a bill to complaint is denied."

The high tribunal gave permission to Kentucky, Pennsylvania, North and South Dakota, Oklahoma, Utah, Wyoming, Florida, Iowa, Arkansas, Kansas and West Virginia to line themselves up with Delaware as prospective complainants. There it turned back the whole action.

David P. Buckson, Delaware attorney general, had asked permission to file an original suit in the high tribunal under the Constitution's grant of authority for the court to settle controversies between states.

Buckson's request for permission to sue said that under the unit vote system the total number of presidential electoral votes of a state "is arbitrarily misappropriated" for the candidate receiving a bare plurality of the total number of citizens' votes cast within the state.

Communism Subject of DAR Meet

In its October meet the John Cain Chapter, DAR, heard Dan Smoot's report on the Threat of Communism, presented by Mrs. Joe Keesey.

The report said that Communist party membership had dwindled but the organization is used as a decoy to draw attention away from the activities of those who work in secret and are not listed as active members.

The report also said the American Communism is a part of international Communism. Mrs. Keesey closed her remarks with an article by "A Tired American" who lists the growing number of things Americans are becoming tired of.

Mrs. Richards Howard, regent, presided and expressed appreciation to all members of the community who helped make Constitution Week a success. Mrs. J. J. Battle read a tribute to the Flag.

Thant Will Relay Protest by Africans

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

Thant planned to meet U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg today to relay an Asian-African protest against the Zionist invasion last week of Syria's U.N. mission. The incident focused attention on renewed demands from some delegates that the United Nations move from New York.

A group of 19 young American Zionists, carrying such signs as "Peace in the Middle East" and "Stop Syrian Aggression," marched into the Syrian offices to hold a prayer vigil. New York police arrested them and a court hearing is set for Nov. 25.

The 62-nation African-Asian group asked Thant to protest the violation of the Syrian premises to the United States. The secretary-general said he would stress "the necessity of ensuring the safety of representatives to the United Nations and their premises" and also would convey the group's feelings that more adequate steps should be taken to that end.

Since the incident occurred, Syrian Ambassador George J. Tomeh has had police protection at home and on his diplomatic rounds.

The Zionist invasion was made Friday as the U.N. Security Council was meeting to decide whether to take up an Israeli complaint that Syria sends demolition squads into Israel. The council was to continue its debate this afternoon.

Denver Housewives Plan Boycott to Lower Food Prices

By MIKE BEAN

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Housewives in the Denver metropolitan area today are ready to boycott five major grocery chains in an effort to get lower food prices.

The boycott has become a Colorado political issue. It appears to have caused one chain to reduce prices, and it may mean a visit to Denver by a presidential aide.

Esther Peterson, special assistant to the President on consumer affairs, wants to attend a meeting of the Better Business Bureau, food chain representatives, and the leaders of an organization called Housewives for Lower Food Prices, Rep. Roy H. McVicker, D-Colo., said Sunday. The meeting, requested by the chains, is tentatively scheduled for Thursday.

The housewives are shopping at independent grocers and boycotting Miller's, Furr's, King Soopers, Red Owl and Safeway chains.

Mrs. Paul West, leader of the housewives group, is gathering signatures on a petition calling for federal and state investigations into the cost of food. She said Sunday night more than 25,000 signatures have been received.

The petition will be sent to President Johnson, Gov. John A. Love, and the state congressional delegation.

Democratic congressional candidates have thrown their support to Mrs. West's group, although one Republican candidate claimed to be first. Mrs. West decries the political support and said, "It's our horse, and we want to ride it." She said she didn't want the issue to become a political football.

Reaction to the boycott by supermarket officials has been varied. McLeod Hittson, division manager of Miller's Super Markets, said Sunday that all 43 stores in Colorado would be closed today "and our people will work the entire day at reducing prices." Hittson said there would be other cutbacks. Promotions will be halted, a controlled policy of check-cashing will go into effect, grocery carryout service will be eliminated, and store hours will be shortened, he said.

Officials at King Soopers and Safeway called for an immediate federal investigation of the increased cost of food.

Red Owl President James A. Watson said the housewives' complaints are not justified. "Prices are already as low as they can be," he said. He said that he doesn't plan to do anything from his main offices in Minneapolis, and he won't come to Denver.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, was in Little Rock to dedicate a new state headquarters for Arkansas Teamsters.

"Anybody who talks about a $1.70 an hour minimum wage must be stupid," Hoffa declared. "We ought to have at least a $2 minimum wage based on a 46-hour week considering the fact that automation is rapidly taking over."

Hoffa Admits State Is Tough

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Due to the state government moving in and the National Labor Relations Board "dragging its feet," Arkansas is one of the "toughest" states for labor to organize in, Jimmy Hoffa said Saturday.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, was in Little Rock to dedicate a new state headquarters for Arkansas Teamsters.

LBJ Off on Peace Mission to Far East

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, getting a red-carpet sendoff on his 25,000-mile Pacific-Asian journey, said today "I shall do my best" to promote peace and human progress.

Standing on a bunting-draped platform at Dulles International Airport in the nearby Virginia countryside, Johnson said:

"I leave you to undertake a hopeful mission. I ask for your prayers. I shall do my best to advance the cause of peace and of human progress."

The top layer of Washington officialdom gathered under the flags of the 50 states in front of the airport's futuristic terminal building to say their farewells to the President and Mrs. Johnson.

The President, who will visit at least six countries in the next 17 days, said he wants to learn "of their progress and problems, their hopes and their concerns."

A seventh country not listed on Johnson's itinerary — South Viet Nam — stands as the focal point of his arduous travels, however. Viet Nam claimed greatest attention in his departure statement.

Referring to the seven-nation Manila conference set for Oct. 24-25, Johnson said:

"A small Asian nation is under attack and defending itself with extraordinary courage and endurance. I go to confer with its leaders and with the leaders of those other nations that have committed their young men to defeat aggression."

"We shall review the state of military operations; but we shall mainly devote our attention to the civil, constructive side of the problem of Viet Nam."

"We shall together seek ways of bringing about an honorable peace at the earliest possible moment."

Johnson, though obviously in a buoyant mood for the past week, sounded a note of caution Sunday. Appearing at the dedication of a Roman Catholic shrine at Doylestown, Pa., he said "we cannot wave any wand and we do not expect to achieve any miracles" — at home or abroad.

The carefully staged airport ceremony was attended by a broadly representative official farewell committee.

Turning out were Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, members of the Cabinet and diplomatic corps, Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress, trumpeters, bandsmen, troops of all the services and experts at firing 21-gun salutes.
